

of Springfield, was in town today visiting relatives and friends.

Attorney S. R. Thurman spent the week in the city on legal business.

Mrs. A. L. Towle and Maud Daniels returned to Silver City today after a week's visit with relatives and friends in the Garden City.

EPHRAIM SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Ephraim, Aug. 18.—Louis Larsen and family of Blaney county are in the city to attend the reception to be given our volunteers.

Murray Larsen of Mantle was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Lehl Peterson returned from an extended visit to Vernal, the first of the week.

Oscar Justesen was down from Spring City the first of the week.

Dave Nielson came over from Mantle to visit the folks at home this week.

J. M. Boyden, editor of the Mt. Pleasant Pyramid, was a visitor in this city yesterday.

Chris Byrge went over to West Point yesterday to look at some mining property.

Frank Christensen and wife were Mt. Pleasant visitors Monday.

Nephew Rose of Wales was in town the first of the week.

Ole Larsen and wife visited friends in Mayfield the first of the week.

Mrs. E. W. Taylor of Salt Lake City visited relatives here during the past week.

Chris Andersen of Mantle was in town interviewing our laborer the first of the week. It is reported that Chris is about to join the army of benefactors.

Miss Lottie Bird of Mantle was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Ora Price of Nephi, who has been visiting friends here for some time, returned to her home Saturday.

Lehl Peterson and wife visited Mantle friends Tuesday.

G. A. Iversen visited relatives in this city Saturday. Mr. Iversen recently returned from Klamath, where he has been employed as editor of the Sevier County Times. He has accepted a situation in the Mantle district schools.

Warren Tye went out to Mayfield the first of the week.

Mrs. Alfred Lamb of Wales was in town Saturday.

Attorney W. M. Hutchinson of Salt Lake City was in town Monday on business connected with the bankrupt Gold Rule Cash store.

Professor A. C. Nelson, county superintendent of schools, was a visitor here on Monday.

John Squires and wife stopped here Saturday on their way to Spring City.

Olof Anderson of Mt. Pleasant was in town last night.

James Clawson was down from Spring City Wednesday.

Adolph Taylor and wife were over from Freedom the last of the week.

Miss Hildie Peterson visited Mt. Pleasant friends last week.

Ella Christensen, wife of Mantle visited relatives in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Enoch Jorgensen of Mantle visited her old home Monday.

Dan W. Anderson made a business visit to Mantle Wednesday.

Warren Tye's family is rejoicing over the arrival of a baby.

The ladies of the city surprised Mrs. C.

C. A. Christensen and Mrs. Hans Brien-holt last week. Both ladies have sons in Utah's famous battery, and these parties closed the series given to the mothers of volunteers. The parties were successful and greatly enjoyed by all present.

P. C. Peterson and wife visited Mt. Pleasant friends last Saturday.

Mrs. M. Rasmussen and her daughter, Miss Mathilda, went out to Sterling the first of the week.

Alf Erickson and wife of Mt. Pleasant were guests of C. W. Peterson's family in Fairview the previous day on legal business.

Charles Musig, Jr. of Sterling was in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Larsen of Mayfield were visitors in this city Monday.

Willard Peterson and wife are enjoying the baths at Castella Springs this week.

Mrs. Margie Rasmussen returned from a short visit to Provo the first of the week.

Mrs. Ephraim Clawson gave birth to a baby girl last Saturday.

Dolph Young was in from Sterling yesterday.

Mrs. Sam Edwards and children of Sterling visited relatives here Monday.

Mrs. Gertrude Peterson of Salt Lake City is a guest of Miss Sophia Hansen.

Miss May Conrad of Chester, daughter of County Assessor Ed Conrad, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Thorpe and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Murray spent Sunday at Shumway Springs, as guests of Parley Peterson and wife.

James W. Cherry of Mantle was in the city on legal business Monday.

E. M. Nielson and Miss Millie Jorgensen ended the matrimonial sea this week. They are both well and favorably known in this city and have a host of friends, who extend best wishes to them.

Professor Moses Christensen of Castella Springs is in the city.

Ole K. Olsen went to Mantle today.

Ephraim's volunteers will be given a royal reception upon their arrival next Monday. A big parade, a fine program in the meeting house and a banquet at the opera house for the whole town will be features of the occasion.

Albert Rosendahl was up from Gunnison early in the week.

Frank Christensen, Fairview's photographer, will spend the coming winter in Provo.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson went down to Elsinore from her Fairview home Sunday.

Professor and Mrs. George H. Marshall returned this week from their eastern summer's outing. They report an exceedingly pleasant time. Professor Marshall visited all the large cities of the central states, going as far east as Niagara Falls.

Mrs. George Murdoch of Fairview went to Silver City early in the week on a short visit to her husband, who is employed there.

Miss Ingebor Frandsen went to Provo early in the week to spend a few weeks with friends there.

Parley Hansen went over to Nephi by team Sunday afternoon. He will accompany the "Ole Olsen" comedy company on their trip through the state during the balance of the summer.

A. A. Johnson of Fairview went to Sevier county last week to remain indefinitely.

Another delayed train last Sunday held a crowd of Mt. Pleasantites on the road for about eight hours. The delay was caused by a wreck of a freight train near Castella Springs. The wreck was caused by a misplaced switch. Nobody was injured.

Mrs. L. P. Becker of Mantle came up to Mt. Pleasant Tuesday and is here now, the guest of relatives.

J. W. Beach went from Fairview to Mantle Sunday evening.

A. B. Thompson, the local photographer, went down to Gunnison Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Messrs. O. C. Peterson, Axel Bjelke, Ed Zabriskie and J. M. Boyden were Ephraim visitors Wednesday night.

Miss Hettie Omen came home Wednesday from a lengthy visit with her sister.

for a Sanpete county band to attend the volunteers' reception Saturday.

N. W. Anderson, one of Mantle's successful teachers, was in Mt. Pleasant early in the week.

John Dehlin was a Mt. Pleasant visitor the first of the week.

Steve Bunnell and wife were up from Spring City Monday.

Attorney W. D. Livingston and N. Christensen were in town Tuesday, having been in Fairview the previous day on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Borden of Fairview spent Saturday night and Sunday here, the guests of Mrs. Hoyden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen.

Ed Candland, the Chester cattle dealer, attended to business matters in town on Tuesday.

Milburn's rustling merchant, E. B. Jones, was down on business the first of the week.

J. E. Josephson was a Fairview visitor early in the week.

Wedding invitations have been issued announcing the wedding next week at Fountain Green of Miss Mary Thompson and Andrew H. Anderson, both of Fountain Green. A wedding reception will be given in their honor at the residence of the bride's parents on Thursday evening, the 24th. The contracting parties are young and popular society folks of this city, and will start out in married life in pleasant circumstances and with the best wishes of hosts of friends.

Joseph S. Day and James Gundersen went down to Ephraim early in the week for a couple of days' stay.

A. H. Anderson was in town from his Fountain Green home early in the week.

Amasa Wilson of Fairview expects to soon depart from this city and go to California, where he will be in charge of the C. W. Wilson, who is principal of the L. D. S. academy there.

J. M. Boyden of pyramid spent last Sunday in Fairview.

Miss Clara Phillips returned to Thistle Junction this week, after a couple of months' visit with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Phillips, who is in charge of the railroad lunch counter there.

Albert Rosendahl was up from Gunnison early in the week.

Frank Christensen, Fairview's photographer, will spend the coming winter in Provo.

Mrs. A. A. Johnson went down to Elsinore from her Fairview home Sunday.

Professor and Mrs. George H. Marshall returned this week from their eastern summer's outing. They report an exceedingly pleasant time. Professor Marshall visited all the large cities of the central states, going as far east as Niagara Falls.

Mrs. George Murdoch of Fairview went to Silver City early in the week on a short visit to her husband, who is employed there.

Miss Ingebor Frandsen went to Provo early in the week to spend a few weeks with friends there.

Parley Hansen went over to Nephi by team Sunday afternoon. He will accompany the "Ole Olsen" comedy company on their trip through the state during the balance of the summer.

A. A. Johnson of Fairview went to Sevier county last week to remain indefinitely.

Another delayed train last Sunday held a crowd of Mt. Pleasantites on the road for about eight hours. The delay was caused by a wreck of a freight train near Castella Springs. The wreck was caused by a misplaced switch. Nobody was injured.

Mrs. L. P. Becker of Mantle came up to Mt. Pleasant Tuesday and is here now, the guest of relatives.

J. W. Beach went from Fairview to Mantle Sunday evening.

A. B. Thompson, the local photographer, went down to Gunnison Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Messrs. O. C. Peterson, Axel Bjelke, Ed Zabriskie and J. M. Boyden were Ephraim visitors Wednesday night.

Miss Hettie Omen came home Wednesday from a lengthy visit with her sister.

Mrs. Harry Fletcher of Pueblo, Her sister, Mrs. W. C. Hunter, who accompanied her, will remain another two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Erickson went down to Ephraim Monday for a short visit to relatives.

Oscar Lee is in town from Eureka for a few days' visit.

J. W. Lowe went in to Salt Lake on a business trip the middle of the week. He remained to take in the volunteer celebration.

Morgan Winters came home to Mt. Pleasant this week. He has been in Wyoming for a couple of months.

Burt Whelan went back to his temporary home in Eureka Tuesday after a short stay in this city with old-time friends.

G. Maxfield was seen in town from Spring City Tuesday.

Miss Emma Houtz, lady teacher of Indian, arrived in Mt. Pleasant this week from her eastern home, and will remain here over winter. She has been engaged to act in the capacity of matron of the Presbyterian Home here, and has already assumed charge of that institution. She has for several years been in the employ of the government in South Dakota, as a teacher of Indian schools.

Professor G. H. Marshall, Misses Ella Heaton and Mary Hemmaway, teachers at the Wasatch academy, and Miss Serena Nielson, went down to Springfield Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian Teachers' association of Utah and the Presbytery, both of which meet in that city next week. They will be absent about ten days.

Oscar Booth, the Nephi architect, was in Mt. Pleasant a few days this week, overseeing buildings which are being erected under his direction.

Andrew Childs and wife of Chester were in Mt. Pleasant on Tuesday of this week.

Byron Whelock, who was summoned from Eureka by the sickness and death of his little child, returned to that city again Wednesday.

Dr. Charles Kay of Ferron, Emery county, is in Mt. Pleasant this week, the guest of Dr. W. W. Woodring, his uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wren of Ferron were in Mt. Pleasant the greater part of the week, on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. W. W. Woodring, who is in charge of the railroad lunch counter there.

Miss Ida Nordstrom returned from Springfield to her Fairview home on Tuesday.

Dr. Woodring spent Thursday in Moroni.

A very enjoyable party was given in the Fairview parlor Friday evening by the primary members of the district school.

Miss Nina Hauser entertained a number of her young lady friends at a pleasant party Sunday evening.

SPRINGVILLE SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Springville, Aug. 18.—The week has been lively one socially, every one being animated with a joyous feeling over the return of the volunteers. Springville people who are abroad are very generally returning to their homes to be present at the welcome to the Utah batteries.

Miss Edith Richardson of Grand Junction is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Clark.

Miss Mary Linn has returned to Springville, after a pleasant visit at her home in Byron, Ill. Miss Linn will teach at the Hungerford academy this year.

Miss Emma Matson spent the week at Castella Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. of Spanish Fork were in town Friday visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bird.

Miss Adrienne Molen is spending a week in Salt Lake visiting friends.

Mrs. Leon Hayward and sister-in-law, Miss Flora, have gone to Hanna, Wyo., for a visit.

Professor M. F. Warner, who was principal of the Springville school last year, was in town Tuesday. Professor Warner has accepted the position of principal of the schools at Panaca, Nev., during the coming year.

Professor L. E. Eggersten has moved over from Provo, and is now settled in this city. He will fill the position of principal of the Springville schools this year.

George Drury is at Spanish Fork this week trying to organize a tent of the Knights of the Ku Klux.

Messrs. E. S. Lundy and George Jagers of Provo, were in town on business Monday. From here they went south to Salem and Payson. Mr. Jagers is an old-time Springville resident.

Professor Aaron Roylance of this city will resume his duties as principal of the Salem schools next month. Professor Roylance is an able educator and gives good satisfaction at Salem.

Hans Peterson of Salt Lake is here on a visit to his brother, Dr. C. J. Peterson. Mr. Peterson will soon open a drug store at Elsinore.

Messrs. Lee and Heber Harrington of American Fork are spending a week camping in Hobble Creek canyon.

Miss Lora Whitaker is visiting relatives in Salt Lake City.

Miss Evaline Thomas of Salt Lake is visiting Miss Emma Douglas this week.

B. Goddard and family of Salt Lake were the guests of R. Lee Bird this week.

Mrs. Sarah Cole of Salt Lake was here Saturday and Sunday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Thorpe.

Mrs. Kate Thompson of Circleville is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Frank Miller.

Mark G. Burns of the Mercur Miner was in town Monday on a visit.

Miss Lena Condie has gone to Scofield for the summer.

Ralph Wood is now day operator at the Rio Grande Western depot in this city.

Miss Emma Spafford and Ella Storrs went to American Fork Thursday for a visit to friends.

Miss Mattie Lonsabee is visiting at Eureka this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, who has been visiting at Ogden, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Whitehead is spending a fortnight at Ogden, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burd.

Miss Del Delores Patton of Salt Lake and Mr. W. P. Patton of Payson were here Sunday, the guests of Miss Pearl Daley.

Charles Friel, who is in Salt Lake Monday morning, where he has secured a situation in the bank.

Misses Della Huntington and Gertrude Harrison returned from a week's visit at Thistle, Monday.

Professor A. C. Maple and wife of Winchester, Ind., are here on a visit to Professor and Mrs. L. L. Smith.

Mrs. Will Vallent went to Salt Lake this week, to make arrangements for removal to that place. Mr. Vallent, who is a brakeman on the Rio Grande Western, has been transferred from the "Tintic" branch to the main line.

"The many friends of Mr. M. J. Daley will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from a recent stroke of paralysis."

"Father," Cyrus Sanford is again able to be out.

Bon Carlyle of Logan was visiting in town this week.

Dimmock Huntington came in from Hanna, Wyo., Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Konold returned from Laramie, Wyo., Friday.

Mrs. S. A. Boyer is quite sick with erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Starr of Starr, Utah county, are in town on a visit.

Miss Maud Bowman will teach at Provo this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown visited Provo Monday.

Miss Blanche Bent and Mrs. Mary Crandall will teach in the Scofield schools this year.

Messrs. Sprague and Cross of Salt Lake

the schools at Panaca, Nev., during the coming year.

Professor L. E. Eggersten has moved over from Provo, and is now settled in this city. He will fill the position of principal of the Springville schools this year.

George Drury is at Spanish Fork this week trying to organize a tent of the Knights of the Ku Klux.

Messrs. E. S. Lundy and George Jagers of Provo, were in town on business Monday. From here they went south to Salem and Payson. Mr. Jagers is an old-time Springville resident.

Professor Aaron Roylance of this city will resume his duties as principal of the Salem schools next month. Professor Roylance is an able educator and gives good satisfaction at Salem.

Hans Peterson of Salt Lake is here on a visit to his brother, Dr. C. J. Peterson. Mr. Peterson will soon open a drug store at Elsinore.

Messrs. Lee and Heber Harrington of American Fork are spending a week camping in Hobble Creek canyon.

Miss Lora Whitaker is visiting relatives in Salt Lake City.

Miss Evaline Thomas of Salt Lake is visiting Miss Emma Douglas this week.

B. Goddard and family of Salt Lake were the guests of R. Lee Bird this week.

Mrs. Sarah Cole of Salt Lake was here Saturday and Sunday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Levi Thorpe.

Mrs. Kate Thompson of Circleville is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Frank Miller.

Mark G. Burns of the Mercur Miner was in town Monday on a visit.

Miss Lena Condie has gone to Scofield for the summer.

Ralph Wood is now day operator at the Rio Grande Western depot in this city.

Miss Emma Spafford and Ella Storrs went to American Fork Thursday for a visit to friends.

Miss Mattie Lonsabee is visiting at Eureka this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, who has been visiting at Ogden, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Joseph Whitehead is spending a fortnight at Ogden, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burd.

Miss Del Delores Patton of Salt Lake and Mr. W. P. Patton of Payson were here Sunday, the guests of Miss Pearl Daley.

Charles Friel, who is in Salt Lake Monday morning, where he has secured a situation in the bank.

Misses Della Huntington and Gertrude Harrison returned from a week's visit at Thistle, Monday.

Professor A. C. Maple and wife of Winchester, Ind., are here on a visit to Professor and Mrs. L. L. Smith.

Mrs. Will Vallent went to Salt Lake this week, to make arrangements for removal to that place. Mr. Vallent, who is a brakeman on the Rio Grande Western, has been transferred from the "Tintic" branch to the main line.

"The many friends of Mr. M. J. Daley will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from a recent stroke of paralysis."

"Father," Cyrus Sanford is again able to be out.

Bon Carlyle of Logan was visiting in town this week.

Dimmock Huntington came in from Hanna, Wyo., Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Konold returned from Laramie, Wyo., Friday.

Mrs. S. A. Boyer is quite sick with erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Starr of Starr, Utah county, are in town on a visit.

Miss Maud Bowman will teach at Provo this year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown visited Provo Monday.

Miss Blanche Bent and Mrs. Mary Crandall will teach in the Scofield schools this year.

Messrs. Sprague and Cross of Salt Lake

were in town Sunday. The latter is principal of the Wasatch school in that city.

Burgess Allerton went to Helper Monday evening, where he has secured a situation in the office of the Rio Grande Western.

Miss Ina Maycock and Ellice Reynolds returned Friday from a few months' sojourn in Provo canyon.

RICHFIELD SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Richfield, Aug. 18.—John S. Rolfe, after an absence of several weeks with his family in Provo, returned to this place last week. He went to Salt Lake yesterday.

County Superintendent Magleby is in Richfield this week, preparing for the annual examination of teachers.

Thomas Clark came home a few days ago, after an absence of several months in the northern counties of the state.

District Attorney Childster stayed in Richfield over night last week, on his way home to Langston, from Provo.

Mrs. C. R. and J. D. Snowdon are making a trip through Fruite county.

Miss Lizette went to Salt Lake last week on a two weeks' visit, prior to the opening of school.

Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Mork went north last Saturday to attend the Christian Endeavorers' session.

J. M. Hayes of Salt Lake spent several days in Sevier county towns during the past week.

A. E. Howard, editor of the Salina Press, was in Richfield a couple of days this week, looking much improved in health.

F. T. Tilton took a flying trip home from Gunnison last Saturday, but had to return the following day.